

VFW POST 10066 NOVEMBER 2019 NEWSLETTER

Commander's Corner:

November promises to be a very busy month for our VFW. We begin with the Post's Golf Tournament on Nov. 2 at the Shores of North River Golf Club followed by lunch and awards at the VFW. Non-golfers may join us for lunch for an $8 donation.

On Nov. 8, five of our members - each veterans of the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force and Coast Guard - will participate in the Jensen Beach Elementary School Veterans Day Assembly. I'll be showing students pictures from my Honor Flight trip to Washington DC.

On Veterans Day, Monday, Nov. 11, Post and Auxiliary members should meet at the VFW at 8:30 am to gather flags and carpool to the Veterans Day Parade, which begins at 10 am in Stuart. The Post will serve complimentary lunches to all parade participants beginning at noon at the VFW. I'm hoping we have a good turnout to proudly represent our Post!

I hope you have noticed the return of the LMTV vintage military transport vehicle on display near the Savannah Road entrance to the Post. The vehicle owner, Michael Roberts of Special Forces Construction, has loaned us the vehicle to display and drive in the Veterans Day Parade. Thank you Michael!

Our kitchen management is in transition, since Vince left last month. We are close to contracting with another chef to manage and operate the kitchen, serving daily lunches, appetizers and evening grill menus as well as Friday night special dinners. As soon as the paperwork is completed and kitchen is set to reopen, we will let you know. Thank you for your patience!

Beginning Nov. 1, the Post will charge a $2-per-person cover charge on Friday nights to help cover the cost of the live bands who entertain each week. We are proud to present quality entertainment every Friday night.

Post 10066 will host the VFW District 11 meeting on Saturday, Nov. 23. The Post will open at 8:30 am, but the canteen will close at 11 am until about 1 pm, when the VFW and Auxiliary meetings end. Then, we will serve baked ziti lunches with sausages, meatballs, Caesar salad, garlic bread, desserts for $10. Members get tickets from the Post or Auxiliary officers.

After the meetings, District will judge Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen scholarship entries from local middle school and high school students and Teacher of the Year entries. Post 10066 and the Auxiliary present awards to local winners during our annual Christmas Party. Good Luck to all as they advance for district, state and national judging.

I want to congratulate the VFW Auxiliary on their successful Halloween Bingo fundraiser to help the VFW purchase new bar stools for the canteen.

Our next VFW Post general meeting will be at 6:30 pm on Veterans Day, Monday, Nov. 11 in the Al Pond Hall.

The Post will be closed on Thanksgiving Day. I hope you all enjoy time with your families that day.
